CONSIDERING the 4-0 scoreline in the first leg of our Milk Cup tie at Forest a fortnight ago, it goes without saying that we have a very difficult job on our hands in tonight's return.

Everything is in Nottingham's favour. But in welcoming Brian Clough, his players, club officials and supporters to Burnden Park, I would like to think they will leave feeling they have been forced to work just as hard as in any away game they play this season.

The fact is that Forest are hot favourites — any realist knows that. But I said after the game at the City Ground that we have a lot of pride to play for on our own territory and when a team is fighting for pride then anything can happen. We are certainly not just going through the motions.

Football has a habit of producing unusual results and Cup football has been littered down the years with giant-killing acts, so who knows? A surprise could be on the cards!

Especially if we can produce our best form.

Things were going well in the first leg when we held Forest for more than an hour. We restricted them to very few chances and they found it difficult to break us down.

Our back four did a very fine job. I was particularly pleased with the way Derek Scott performed against Steve Wigley, who is a very good winger, and our two centre backs Sam Allardyce and Mark Came did very well in the middle.

It was a disappointing night for us in the end, but I was pleased with certain aspects of our play and I'm sure these three lads in particular will have been encouraged by the way they performed against First Division opposition.

What we must be aware of, having discovered to our cost in the first leg, is that being a First Division outfit, Forest are capable of drawing you out of your position and hitting you with their pace and skill.

Tonight should prove an interesting tussle and whichever way the final aggregate score goes, I'll be happy if we can walk away with our heads held high, and our pride restored.

NOTTINGHAM FOREST

FOREST HAVE EYE ON WEMBLEY

by Tony Pullein

Nottingham Forest have not made the brightest of starts to their First Division programme so manager Brian Clough probably sees his best chance of winning a trophy this season lying in one of the Cup competitions. Having got off to such a fine start with their 4-0 first-leg victory over us at the City Ground, Forest will be aiming to go all the way in the Milk Cup.

Forest were the first club to appear in three successive finals of this tournament. It was still known as the League Cup when they won the finals of 1978 (against Liverpool) and 1979 (Southampton). They were narrowly beaten by Wolves at Wembley in 1980.

During those golden years between 1978 and 1980 Forest won six of the game's most prized trophies. After lifting the League Championship for the first time in 1978, they won the European Cup for the next two seasons. In addition to their two League Cup final triumphs, Forest won the European Super Cup in 1980.

Life at the City Ground since then has been quiet as Mr Clough got down to the business of rebuilding his team. Those plans continued this summer when he signed Portsmouth's high-scoring England under-21 midfield player Neil Webb, defenders Ian Butterworth and Stuart Pearce from Coventry, midfielder Brian Rice from Hibernian and re-signed Scotland winger John Robertson from Derby County.

The total outlay on those new players was £712,500.

Mr Clough has also introduced comparative newcomers from his existing staff. These include his son Nigel, who has been holding a regular place in attack alongside England's Peter Davenport, and David Campbell who celebrated his first full game in the first-team with two goals against us in the first-leg.

Forest do not have a very good away record. Prior to their visit to Aston Villa last Saturday, they had achieved only one away victory but this was by the considerable margin of 3-0 at Leicester.

They drew at Luton (1-1) but were beaten in their other away matches at Q.P.R. (1-2), Liverpool (0-2) and West Ham (2-4).

With a 4-0 lead, Forest must have a very good chance of progressing to the third round of the Milk Cup. Only once in the history of this competition has a team beaten by four goals in the first-leg eventually won the tie. It happened in this corresponding second round exactly five years ago. Southampton had apparently crushed Watford by 4-0 at The Dell but were then beaten 7-1, after extra-time, at Vicarage Road!

In football, as they say, anything is possible.

The odds, of course, must be heavily stacked in Forest's favour and it is in the Milk Cup that Forest probably have their best chance of winning a trophy. The F.A. Cup, for some reason, has always provided a jinx over Mr Clough.

In spite of his many successes as both player and manager, he has never been involved in an F.A. Cup final.

Forest have won the F.A. Cup only twice, in 1898 and 1959. Indeed, those were the only major successes achieved during the club's long history until Mr Clough arrived as manager in 1975 and completely transformed the outlook.

Formed in 1865, Forest were elected to the First Division of the Football League in 1892. Following relegation in 1906, they regained their First Division status at the first attempt. They suffered another short spell in the Second Division soon after that but, when they dropped down again in 1925, they began a very long spell in the wilderness.

They even dipped into the Third Division (South) for a couple of years at the end of the 'forties. It wasn't until 1957 that they returned to First Division football, remaining until 1972.

Their most recent promotion in 1977 proved to be the prelude to the most successful era in club history.

HANS SEGERS (Goalkeeper). Forest signed Hans on loan from PSV Eindhoven in August 1984 and he spent the first few months of his stay at the City Ground in the reserves. But, since making his League debut at Coventry in November, he has held his place and Forest completed his transfer for £125,000.

STEVE SUTTON (Goalkeeper). Steve developed in the junior teams at the City Ground and made his first League appearance at Newcastle in October 1980. He later went to Mansfield on loan and over the past four seasons has made 38 appearances in Forest's First Division side. Last season he was loaned to Derby County.

JIM MCINALLY (Defender). Jim joined Forest from Celtic in 1984 and he established himself in League football last season. At Celtic he was squeezed out for much of the while by the big name internationals but did get a brief first chance in their League eleven three seasons ago.

CHRIS FAIRCLOUGH (Defender). Chris is a former Forest apprentice who took his chance well, when introduced to the first-team in 1982/83. Last season he won three England under-21 caps.

IAN BUTTERWORTH (Defender). Ian developed in Coventry's junior teams and made his entry into League football with the Sky Blues in 1981/82. He was capped twice at England under-21 level last season and joined Forest in the summer.

STUART PEARCE (Defender). Stuart joined Forest this close-season from Coventry. The Sky Blues signed him from Wealdstone in October 1983 and he was in the first-team within a couple of weeks.

DES WALKER (Defender). Des completed his apprenticeship with Forest and made his League debut two seasons ago. Now he is holding a regular place for the first time, turning out both at centre-back and right-back this season.

BRIAN RICE (Midfield). Forest stepped in smartly to sign Brian from Hibernian this summer. Brian is a Scottish under-21 international.

IAN BOWYER (Midfield). Versatile Ian is in his second spell with Forest. He originally played for Manchester City and Orient until Forest signed him in 1973. He left for Sunderland in 1981 but returned within a year.

NEIL WEBB (Midfield). Neil, Portsmouth's top scorer with 18 goals last season, joined Forest in the summer. He began his career with Reading, moved on to Portsmouth in 1982 and last season he became an England under-21 international.

JOHN ROBERTSON (Forward). John returned to Forest this summer after spending two seasons with Derby. He made well over 400 appearances for Forest in his first spell and won 28 Scotland caps.

DAVID CAMPBELL (Forward). David scored twice against us in the first-leg at the City Ground. A former Forest apprentice, he made one brief appearance last season, as substitute, in their First Division side.

PREVIOUS ENCOUNTERS

We welcome Nottingham Forest to Burnden Park tonight for their first ever visit for a Football League/Milk Cup tie with the Wanderers.

Our paths have crossed in the FA Cup, the first occasion being in March 1926 when Bolton travelled to Nottingham for a sixth round tie. Forest at the time were a Second Division side and had reached the last eight without conceding a goal whilst the Wanderers were in the First Division.

Bolton kicked off with the advantage of a strong wind and took the lead after six minutes when Butler headed home, although within five minutes Forest had equalised through Stocks. On the stroke of half time Butler struck again, scoring after the ball had hit Jack on the back at a free kick. The second half was only two minutes old when Wanderers keeper Dick Pym made a rare mistake, dropping the ball to Burton who made it 2-2 and that's the way it stayed. The two sides were:-

Bolton: Pym, Howarth, Greenhalgh, Cope, Seddon, Thornborough, Butler, D. Jack, J. R. Smith, J. Smith, Vizard.

Forest: Langford, Thompson, Barratt, Belton, Morgan, Wallace, Gibson, Stocks, Galloway, Burton, Jones.

For the replay at Burnden the following Wednesday afternoon both sides were without their respective centre forwards due to injury. Rollo Jack, David's younger bother, who had 20 Central League goals to his name that season replaced J. R. Smith, whilst former Wanderer Charles Flood replaced Galloway for Forest.

Unfortunately a crowd of 29,752 saw no goals and even extra time failed to find a result and so to a second replay at Old Trafford five days later. Both clubs won their respective League games on the Saturday and so entered the tie full of confidence.

The Bolton directors took 20 players to the game only deciding on the team half an hour before the kick off, bringing in Jennings, Round and Baggett from the original side. A crowd of 30,952 paid £2,202 to see Bolton win the game thanks to a goal after 15 minutes play from Joe Smith. The Wanderers went on to win the trophy that year but by coincidence the next time the two clubs faced each other was in February 1959 with Forest winning through to eventually take the Cup.

That tie took place again in the 6th round at the City Ground before an all ticket 45,000 crowd. Tommy Wilson put the home side into the lead after only three minutes and when the same player grabbed their second in the 4th minute it seemed all over for Bolton. Brian Birch pulled one back for Bolton in the 62 minute but it was'nt enough to save the game.

Our next two Cup encounters saw Second Division Bolton as underdogs, with Forest in the First Division, firstly in the 3rd round of the 1968 competition. The result went to form with Forest running out 4-2 winners at the City Ground, their goals coming from John Winfield, Joe Baker, Dave Hilley and former Horwich RMI striker Frank Wignall. John Hulme and Gordon Taylor were the Bolton scorers before a crowd of 37,220.

In January 1981 Bolton were six minutes from causing a shock against the then European Champions at Nottingham but had to be satisfied with a 3-3 draw. Trevor Francis gave Forest the lead after 32 minutes with a delicate chip over Dennis Peacock but four minutes later Bolton were level when Dave Hoggan shot past Peter Shilton.

It was Hoggan who gave Bolton the lead in the 55th minute but it was Trevor Francis who replied with Forest's equaliser after 65 minutes. Two minutes later Bolton were again in front when Neil Whatmore capitalised on a defensive error and with ten minutes remaining Forest gambled on pushing defenders Larry Lloyd and Bryn Gunn into attack. It paid off in the 84th minute when Raymond Ponte hammered a close range shot into the roof of the net.

The replay at Burnden attracted a crowd of 22,799 and despite another good performance Bolton went down to a Trevor Francis goal in extra time.

In the Football League we have played each other on 62 occasions and our record is as follows:-

	PL	W	D	L	F	A
Home	31	20	7	4	64	26
Away	31	6	8	17	28	57
Total	62	26	15	21	92	83

IN RESERVE

24th September 1985

Blackpool Reserves 5

Bolton Wanderers Reserves 1

An experienced Blackpool team went to the top of the table as they proved too much for the Wanderers in terms of finishing. Bolton had enough chances to at least have made the score respectable but found Richard Powell in the 'Pool goal in fine form. Young Bolton keeper Kevin Mailey also gave a good performance after a shaky start including a spectacular save from a 30 yard piledriver from Kevin Stonehouse.

Blackpool took the lead after six minutes with a Brian Butler shot from 25 yards and three minutes later went two up when Kevin Stonehouse converted a penalty awarded for handball by Jimmy Phillips.

Roger Walker brought Bolton back into the game after 31 minutes when he ran half the length of the field, shrugging off a challenge before slipping the ball underneath the advancing keeper.

Bobby Thomson increased Blackpool's lead six minutes later, after the Wanderers defence had failed to clear their lines from an Ian Britton cross, leaving the forward a simple tap in.

Bolton lost Dean Roberts when he was stretchered off after a late challenge by Thomson, he was later found to have severe bruising.

Roger Walker was always menacing to the home defence and on a number of occasions had them stretched but failed to find the finish. In two separate incidents he twice outran the Blackpool defenders to set up trialist Tom Docherty who firstly shot wide and then saw his goalbound effort well saved by the keeper.

Down memory lane

15 years ago — 3rd October 1970. The Wanderers crashed 4-1 at Sunderland who scored three goals in six minutes to deny Bolton a point. Gordon Taylor returned to the side and Charlie Hurley returned to his former club as substitute.

Ian Porterfield fired the home side into the lead after ten minutes but the Wanderers clawed their way back into the game and equalised just before half time. Paul Fletcher ran half the length of the field, shrugging off a Colin Todd challenge before slipping the ball underneath the advancing Jim Montgomery.

Unfortunately Gordon Harris restored the Wearsider's lead in the 82nd minute with further goals coming from Bobby Park and Joe Baker.

7th October 1970. Leicester City visited Burnden for a third round League Cup tie. The wanderers dropped Roger Hunt, after he had only scored twice in 12 games in favour of John Manning.

City were leading the Second Division at the time, but had keeper Peter Shilton to thank for keeping them in the game, although he could'nt stop a John Manning header giving Bolton the lead after 35 minutes.

John Farrington equalised for Leicester in the 75th minute but there was uproar when the referee blew for time four minutes early. The players protested and fans refused to leave the ground but the referee was adamant.

Wanderers midfielder Gareth Williams was fined £30 by an FA disciplinary commission after collecting his third booking of the season.

10 years ago — 4th October 1975. Bolton extended their unbeaten run to eight games, ending Charlton's unbeaten run of ten games in the process, with a 5-0 victory at Burnden.

Skipper John Ritson celebrated his return to the side by scoring the first two goals, both piledrivers from well outside the penalty area.

Neil Whatmore netted the third after 50 minutes and John Byrom made it four in the 72nd minute, Neil Whatmore rounded off the scoring four minutes from time to send the 9,895 crowd home happy.

5 years ago — 4th October 1980. Yugoslav Dusan Nikolic made his League debut for Bolton replacing David Hoggan for the visit of Chelsea to Burnden.

Colin Lee gave the Londoners a first half lead with a header, before the Wanderers hit back, with two goals in nine minutes from Chris Thompson and Alan Gowling. Unfortunately it was a short lived lead as Chelsea took the points with a 3-2 win with further goals from Mike Fillery and Colin Lee.

Nikolic gave a good performance on his opening game although he was shown the yellow card for a late challenge on Colin Pates.

7th October 1980. Bolton ended their dismal away form with a 2-1 win at Shrewsbury Town, ending an 18 month barren period of 28 away games without a victory.

Phil Wilson returned to midfield and Mike Carter came in for the injured Neil Whatmore. After a goalless first half it was Carter that put Bolton in front in the 56th minute but it lasted only four minutes as Shrewsbury's player manager Graham Taylor equalised.

In the 68th minute, Dusan Nikolic set up Brian Kidd to rifle the winner from 25 yards, but in doing so was injured and limped off with knee trouble.

Peter Reid's transfer to Wolves was still not completed and the FA ordered a deadline for the Midlands to pay £550,000 or pull out of the deal. Dave Thomas had been offered in a player plus cash exchange deal but the club's could not agree on the valuation.

CLUB NEWS

CONTINUED

Blackpool went 4-1 up in the 71st minute when Richard Sendle capitalised on a Jimmy Phillips mistake and the same player netted the fifth two minutes from time with as simple tap in after Kevin Mailey had parried a Stonehouse shot.

Team: Mailey, Shepherd, Winstanley, Darby, Howard, Phillips, Walker, Roberts, McCarty, Allen, Doherty. Sub. Hughes for Roberts.

JUNIOR WHITES NEWS

Tonight's mascot is Michael Chambers who lives at Goldrill Gardens, Brightmer. Michael is 12 years old and his favourite player is George Oghani.

The next Junior Whites meeting will take place on Monday 14th October at 6.30 p.m. in the Executive Suite.

PROGRAMME FAIR

The 11th Annual Bolton Football Programme Fair will take place at the Pack Horse Hotel, Bradshawgate, Bolton on Sunday 13th October between 11.00 a.m. and 3.30 p.m. Thousands of programmes both old and new will be available.

GOAL TALLY DOUBLES

Last week's three goal first half blast against Plymouth more than doubled Bolton's first half goal tally so far this season. In eleven League and Cup games played prior to the victory over Plymouth only 2 out of 15 goals scored had been registered in the first 45 minutes, one each against Rotherham and Lincoln respectively.

The last occasion that the Wanderers had scored three by half-time, was at Orient last April, when a second half collapse saw them lose 4-3, whilst the last time three were scored at Burnden, was a year ago. Coincidentally it was against Plymouth, when the Wanderers eventually ran out 7-2 winners.

PETER NIGHTINGALE — The PHYSIO'S VIEW

I THINK it says a lot for the good habits adopted by our players and the advice they get on the fitness side of their game that the majority of injuries I deal with are the result of physical contact during the course of a match.

Only rarely do I have to treat muscular-type injuries such as pulls or strains — even though one or two of our players are in the high risk category.

That is because of the pre-match and pre-training warm-ups and routines that all our players go through.

Every player who comes to the club, young or old, is educated to appreciate the value of a warm up. Most are quick to make the warm-up code second nature — others learn the hard way.

In recent years it has become common place to see players warming up on the pitch half an hour or so before the kick off. But the spectators are seeing only the final stage of the pre-match preparation. Before they go out, most players will do five or ten minutes, sometimes even longer, loosening up their muscles in the dressing room.

Some will have a shower and others, like Sam Allardyce for instance, prefer a good soak in the bath to get their muscles warmed up before a game — even before training.

Without going into physiological detail, Sam is one of those players who are prone to getting pulled muscles, hamstrings in particular.

It's just one of the quirks of nature that one person's muscles can differ greatly in length from another's. Some are long and stretch easily, others are short and need more looking after.

It might come as a surprise to people to learn that some sportsmen can't actually touch their toes. It isn't that they aren't fit, just that their hamstrings may be short.

An old Bolton favourite Tony Dunne, for instance, had ridiculously-short hamstrings.

Like Sam Allardyce he had to do a lot of careful stretching exercises to loosen up. You'll rarely see Sam go out for his warm up and start sprinting or kicking the ball with any power.

Asa Hartford has to take special care of his calf muscles and achilles tendons which have become weakened through the general wear and tear of a pretty long career.

In Saturday's programme I'll explain why some players can recover so quickly from injuries that they appear to be "shamming".

CROSSWORD No. 7

ACROSS

6. The overall top scorer in English first-class soccer in 1984/85 (4,7)
7. One whose function is finding . . . (7)
8. . . . what's found behind the woodwork (3)
10. Hankin, perhaps (3)
12. Chelsea and England back of the 1950s who shares a first name with . . . (7)
15. . . . a doubly-biblically-named 'defender' who wore eight different shirt numbers for Sunderland last season (5,6)

DOWN

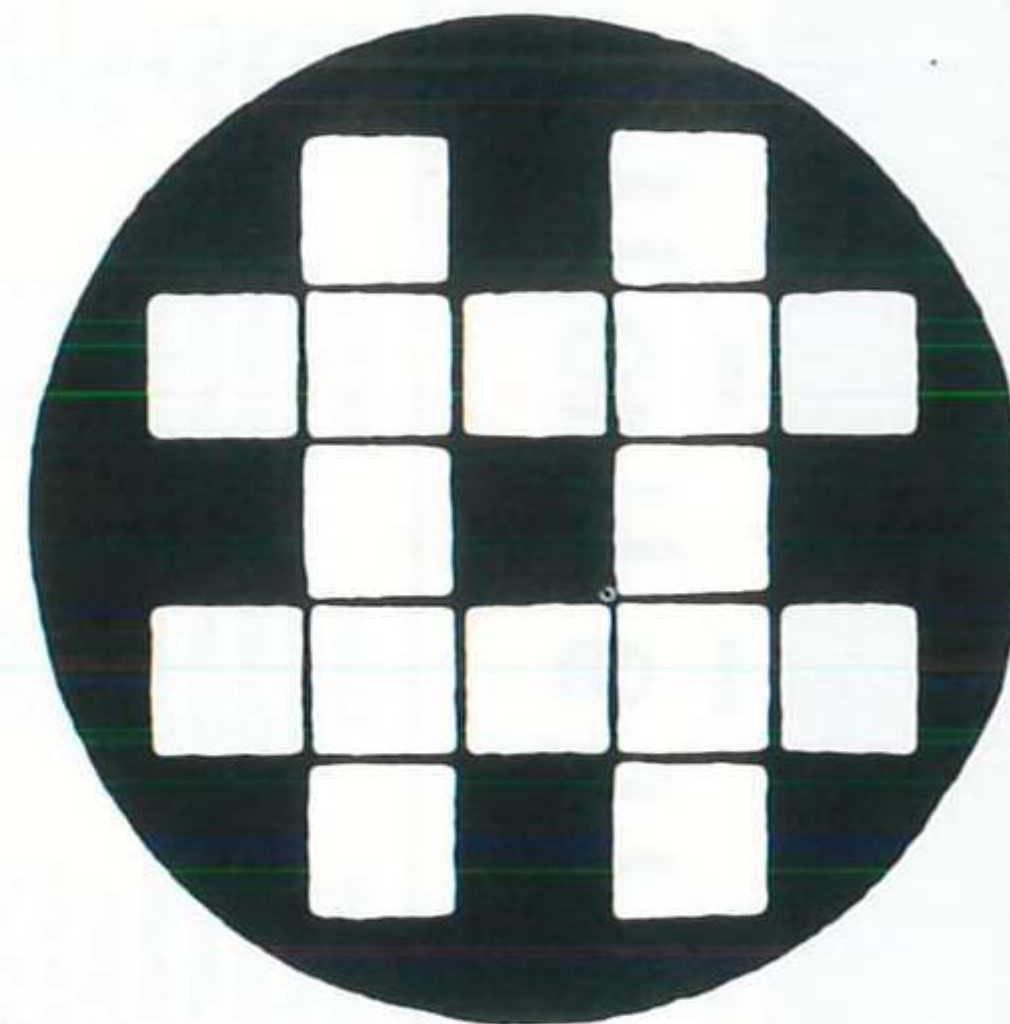

1. It could be of wood or it may be of metal (4)
2. Not in a condition to play (5)
3. Welsh 'wingers', as it were, bringing happiness to Ninian Park (9)
4. No match in a cup competition (3)
5. City where Liverpool won the European Cup on two occasions (4)
9. Front or back man — — — Boulton (nope, not Eastwood!) shared 500 turn-outs equally between Port Vale and Torquay (5)
11. This Williams protects the 8 across (4)
13. Matches in a cup competition (4)
14. Lucky colour for England in the 1966 World Cup fina (3)

Answers to No. 6:

Across: 6. Aylott, 7. Owen, 8. sits, 9. Evans, 11. scarf, 12. Hull, 14. Alex, 15 & 1dn. Rodney Marsh. Down: 1. See 15 across, 2. all-ticket, 3 & 5dn. Stretford End, 4. Swinburne, 5. See 3 down, 10. Lloyd, 13. Ray.

ON THE BALL No. 7

Every answer has five letters and the first one fits into the top line, but you have to decide where the rest must go.

Ex Arsenal/Liverpool Strong man
Old Charlton/England stopper . . .
. . . his first name
The county of Argyle

Answers to No. 6: BILLY, SIXTH, CLIVE, STEVE.

QUICK QUIZ No. 7

1. Who set the record for most consecutive appearances in British Championship internationals?
2. Three clubs finished 1984/85 with zero goal differences — can you name one of them?
3. When were England first beaten by West Germany?
4. Former England Under-23 keeper Bill Glazier played for "The Glaziers" — true or false?
5. Several Soviet clubs have what anagram of 'Monday' as part of their name?

Answers to No. 6

1. Manchester and Bristol, 2. Belfast, 3. Chester, 4. Leicester, 5. Dundee.

SOCCER CENTURION No. 7

Tot up exactly a ton adding the numbers indicated by these clues:

- AZ — Alkmaar, famous Dutch club.
- Norwich City's record Division One draws in 1978/79.
- Premier Division clubs in Scotland

Answers to No. 6. 3 + 91 + 6.

FITNESS TEST No. 7
